Introduction

Your astrological horoscope (natal chart) at birth is an important key to your personality and character, but your natal chart is not the last word about you. As time moves on after the moment of your birth, the Sun, Moon, and planets continue to circle through the heavens forming ever-changing kaleidoscopic patterns in relation to your own birth chart, bringing out or obscuring this or that part of you.

It can be useful to know how these ongoing planetary patterns relate to your life, and that is what this report is about. Here we calculate the primary astrological changes in your chart and interpret them so that you can see at a glance what is happening at any given time. Your events are arranged and interpreted chronologically, by well-known astrologer Michael Erlewine, and each event includes date and time, keywords, astrological indicator, and an astro-tarot card. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

In the tradition of astrology the planets have always been interpreted separately from the Sun and the Moon, which are called "The Lights," and for good reason. They literally light up our life and their combined interaction describes the essence of what is happening to us at any given time. Although called "The Moon Report," any mention of the Moon automatically involves the Sun, and of course, our Earth. These three, the Sun, Moon, and Earth, in their endless interaction are perhaps the single most important factor to observe in astrology.

The ever-changing relationship in the sky between the Sun and the Moon is perhaps most obvious at the Full Moon, but as we know, it is going on all the time. This report tracks the Sun-Moon relationship as it relates to your particular natal horoscope and birth chart, detailing all of the major events that take place in the current month for a specific life area and planet.

The Moon has always represented the 'mother', meaning anything that nurtures or cares for us, our support system, however that is made up. It also indicates our emotional makeup, how we feel about things, and the nostalgia of the past - where we came from.

On the other hand, the Sun represents the 'father' principle and the future, where we are heading toward and, to some degree, the means we have to get there. The Sun burns brightly, while the Moon is cool and comforting. The two together mark the endless play between the past and the future, and we here on Earth, are caught right in the middle, that is: the present.

About the Imagination and Spirituality Forecast

Your Neptune Forecast

Neptune is the planet of imagination, artistic (like music, film, the arts) and also all forms of spiritual unity, including our visions of togetherness -all that we share in common. On a higher octave, Neptune represents compassion, peace, and whatever unites and makes us whole. A Neptune calendar will mark the times when being more imaginative and compassionate are enabled as well as when this kind of experience will be more difficult to encounter.

This forecast is about how the planet Neptune figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. Spiritual experiences, whether through formal religions or alternative ways of experience the greater unity of life are listed here. We hope you enjoy it.

Neptune in your Natal Chart

Neptune in your Natal Chart

Before we present your Neptune forecast for the coming months, let's review how the planet Neptune is configured in your natal or birth chart. What follows is an interpretation of Neptune at your birth to the Sun, Moon, and other planets. It should help to give you a general idea of how you related to matters of imagination and spirituality. Here goes:

Neptune
Opposite
Moon (Waxing)

Inspirational Difficulty

You often enjoy dreamy times, times of inspiration and togetherness, where you actually feel and experience a more spiritual you, rather than just mouth the words. I am not talking church here (although that is fine), but you like whatever makes for spirituality in your life to manifest as an experience.

Neptune
Opposite
Sun (Waxing)

Experience Unity

You naturally experience inspiration and acceptance, and embrace a sense of concern and compassion. You explore your own imagination. This is a frequent experience.

Neptune
Quincunx
Mercury (Waxing)

Connecting

You like to work things out, getting into the details and down to the fine points, but with all the power of the imagination at your command, in particular words and inspired ideas. A kind of mystical in-reach, where you are skilled at putting the finishing touches on things.

Neptune
Quincunx
Venus (Waxing)

Connecting

You always find the perfect times to explore and/or complete, in detail, something inspirational in your life, whether that be as simple as pursuing an interest in movies, music, or film, or something more spiritual. The idea is to finish something already started, rather than to start something new.

Neptune Square Mars
(Waning)

Public Unity

You always manage to find the words to describe, and perhaps even become more discriminating, when it comes to your need for more inspiration and spiritual imagination in your life. You are enthusiastic and motivated when it comes to inspirational and spiritual matters, and discriminating.

Neptune Sextile Jupiter
(Waning)

Discrimination

You are skilled at examining and analyzing how to bring more imagination and inspiration into your career path and plans for success. A career of inspiration, but with an analytical twist.

Neptune Sextile Saturn
(Waning)

Spiritual Criticism

You can get tough and critical when it comes to testing your more mystical leanings, and ideals, in general, with an eye to bring more realistic, and staying with the cold hard facts. Not so much fluff. You cut out the unrealistic.

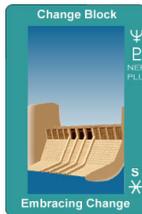

Neptune Semisextile Uranus
(Waning)

The Lotus

You are able to boil the New Age spirituality and inspiration down to an extract, the essence of it all.

Neptune Sextile Pluto
(Waxing)

Change Blocked

You may have experiences of deep acceptance, of a more spiritual nature, that dawn on you, but these can meet with all kinds of minor resistance that prevents or delays it from really getting across and being understood. Working through the resistance furthers.

Your Neptune Forecast

Now that we have reviewed how Neptune is configured at your birth, let's get to the heart of this report, a forecast as to how Neptune (matters of imagination and spirituality) will play out in the coming months. These are the actual transits that will occur between the Sun, Moon, and other planets in relations to Neptune, laid out in an easy-to-read calendar-like format.

Each event will be described by date, day of the week, and include an interpretation written by astrologer Michael Erlewine about how that event might appear in your life. This includes a brief keyword description, when you can expect this event to be exact, the astrological jargon professional astrologers can read, and even a little tarot-like card image to jump-start your imagination.

By reading through the activity of Neptune forecast in the coming months, you basically have a roadmap of how this planet will manifest its nature and play out in your life. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

Act of Acceptance

Sun Semisquare Neptune (Wan) Transit to Transit

Hanging on to what dreams or inspirations are important itself can have disadvantages, the mere fact of clinging causes problems. When this happens, it is a sign that we need to relax and take a new grip, which usually results in there being less that we grab on to, but also less hassles to have. That idea.
